

Do you think economic growth of our city is possible without causing harm to the environment?

